News Release

CHARITY APPLICATIONS NOW BEING ACCEPTED FOR 2015 FALL FOR GREENVILLE

Annual festival donates a portion of proceeds to local nonprofit community

Greenville, S.C. –Fall for Greenville, A Taste of Our Town, is currently accepting applications from local nonprofit organizations for its upcoming festival weekend scheduled for October 9-11 in downtown Greenville. Each year the festival donates a portion of its proceeds to local nonprofit organizations that help provide the almost 1,800 volunteers needed to support the event. Over the last ten years, the festival has donated over $400,000 to the local community.

Throughout the course of the three-day event, volunteers will be placed in key positions throughout the festival site, including cashiers/wristband sellers, beer and wine servers, Pepsi servers, booth captains, festival concierge and event runners. Positions are also available in the Fall for Greenville finance area.

Interested applicants must be a registered local 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Applications can be downloaded at <http://www.fallforgreenville.net/volunteer.php>, and the deadline to apply is June 1, 2015 at 5 p.m. For more information, contact Elane Fleming at efleming@greenvillesc.gov.
